“CARTOON APPRECIATION WORKSHOP”

By Mr. PRASHANT KULKARNI

Objective: Cartooning is an important social and political language. It's tone ranges from honest commentary to cunning subtlety. This makes it important to look at the past and future from the perspective of these cartoons. This course aims to introduce this art in its truest form.

Why should you attend? Cartooning as an artform, is not taught formally in any University. This may be because of its subjectivity, various levels of humour and sketching abilities which makes every cartoon different from the other. This course brings together some of the best cartoons in the world and helps you in understanding and appreciating them.

Who should attend? This course has benefited students from faculties like Journalism, political science, Mass media, Fine and Commercial Arts, History, Social Science, Psychology, Language and even teachers.

Moreover, it is also perfect for those who have an open mind and are interested in knowing how to read between the lines of this artform.

SCHEDULE: It is a one day course from 10 am to 5 am.

Time	Topic
10 AM TO 10:15 AM	Inauguration
10:15 AM TO 11:30 AM	Introduction to Cartooning
	Think Differently (Activity)
11:30 AM TO 11:45 AM	Tea break
11:45 AM TO 1:00 PM	Social Cartoons
1:00 PM TO 1:45 PM	Lunch break
1:45 PM TO 2:00 PM	Test your sense of humour (Activity)
2:00 PM TO 3:00 PM	Political Cartoons
3:00 PM TO 3:45 PM	Illustration
3:45 PM TO 4:00 PM	Caricatures
4:00 PM TO 4:30 PM	Activity results
4:30 PM TO 5:00 PM	Concluding session Q&A

LEARNING OUTCOME: Appreciating cartoons is a skill that the participants will never forget. They will start observing more and further develop the ability to recognize the strength of this medium. The Interactive sessions and activities will help them uncover their own hidden talents, potentials and interest in humour and drawing skills.
